

W2W Talks: Disruptive Moves, Lifestyles and Transformations in the 21st Century

A Women Mentoring Women Event of the Women's Business Council Philippines
October 21, 2016, Dusit Thani Manila, Makati City

Breaking Barriers, Transforming Lives, Achieving Dreams

Learn from three women who have dared to go after their dreams, battling monumental odds, to achieve unparalleled success.

Hear from Khun Suphajee Suthumpun, group CEO of Dusit International, who has shattered the glass ceiling to head global giants like IBM and Thaicom, Plc., straddling diverse industries from technology to telecoms, broadcast, media and now tourism.

Listen to Samelene "Sam" Bernardo Pimentel, the only Filipina in a team of six that reached the North Pole by skiing last April 2015, how she prepared to conquer the extreme cold and treacherous, harsh Arctic environment.

Marvel at the grit and determination of Filipino journalist and now Bataan Representative Geraldine Roman how she traversed the political landscape to become the first openly transgender woman elected to the Congress of the Philippines.

Sign up now for "W2W Talks: Disruptive Moves, Lifestyles and Transformations in the 21st Century" taking place October 21 from 2:00 pm to 5:00 pm at the Mayuree 2 Function Room, Dusit Thani Manila in Makati City, Philippines.

Moderated by seasoned journalist and former Bloomberg bureau chief Coco Alcuaz, Women Mentoring Women (W2W) Talks is organized by Women's Business Council Phils. Inc. (WomenBizPH) as part of its advocacy for women economic empowerment. There will be a modest P5,000 fee to cover expenses. Contact Russel Rivera, WomenBizPH secretariat at admin@womenbiz.ph or call +632 843 1162 to reserve your seat.
